Posey County Community Good Grant Applications Now Being Accepted

Posey County, Indiana – The Posey County Community Foundation (PCCF), an affiliate of the Community Foundation Alliance in Evansville, Indiana, is now accepting applications for the 2018 Posey County Community Good Grants program. In 2017, the Community Good program awarded more than $91,975 to 18 charitable organizations serving Posey County.

Funding requests are welcomed for charitable projects and activities that address needs and opportunities in the community, in the areas of health, human services, arts and culture, education, community development, and others that would improve quality of life in Posey County.

Applications will be accepted from nonprofit organizations that are deemed tax-exempt under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and from governmental agencies serving the county. Requests from nonprofit organizations not classified as a 501(c)(3) public charity may be considered provided the project is charitable and supports a community need. Proposals must be submitted by Tuesday, August 1, 2018. The complete Community Good Grants Program application guidelines and submission information can be found online at www.communityfoundationalliance.org/posey/grants.

Prospective grant applicants may inquire with questions to Melinda Waldroup, Alliance Program Director, (812) 429-1191, or email mwaldroup@communityfoundationalliance.org for more information.

All organizations that have submitted grant applications will be notified of the outcome of the grants committee's deliberation in writing before November 1, 2018.

Established in 1992, the Posey County Community Foundation is one of nearly 700 community foundations in the United States today. Serving Posey County, the PCCF offers people a variety of ways to achieve their goals for their local community through charitable giving. The Posey County Community Foundation, an affiliate of the Community Foundation Alliance, currently administers more than 120 funds established by individuals, families, businesses, civic groups, and agencies to improve the quality of life in Posey County.
