POSEY COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION COMMUNITY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

(Posey County, Indiana) This year, donors to the Posey County Community Foundation are again making scholarship awards available through the Foundation's Community Scholarship Program.

"Many foundation donors have honored their loved ones, high schools, or professions by endowing scholarship opportunities through the Foundation," says John Campbell, the Foundation's Regional Director of Community Engagement and Impact. "We administer separate scholarship funds established by individuals, families, and organizations to assist local students in pursuit of advanced education. Together, these scholarships make up our Community Scholarship Program."

Students may apply for one or more scholarships, as long as they meet the particular eligibility requirements. Details about each scholarship and the application are posted on the Foundation's website, www.CommunityFoundationAlliance.org/Posey.

Eligibility requirements and selection criteria are determined by donors and are posted on the website. Each scholarship is unique and supports students with a variety of backgrounds, educational goals, and economic statuses. Awards are made without regard to race, creed, color, sex, religion, or national origin and are based on a competitive process which may consider academic achievement, extracurricular activities, personal aspirations, educational goals, and financial need.

The Foundation offers the following tips to help students complete their applications:

1. Begin working on the application early.
2. Search for scholarships that match your unique interests and hobbies.
3. Take the time to write required essays. It's worth the extra effort.
4. Follow all instructions carefully and make sure you are submitting all the required parts (including letters of recommendation, transcripts, etc.). Check and double-check your application before submitting.
5. Ask a friend or teacher to read your application and essay for any mistakes that you may have missed.

Applications are accepted on the website, www.CommunityFoundationAlliance.org/Posey. The deadline is 12 midnight on Tuesday, February 12, 2019.
